

MORNING APPEAL.

TUESDAY.....DECEMBER 3

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR BELL

The appointment of Mr. Frank Bell of Reno as Lieutenant Governor has caused every Republican in the State to feel as if Governor Stevenson had poured a pitcher of ice water down his back.

Mr. Bell may be very well fitted for performing the duties of the office from now up to the first day of January 1891, and so, for that matter, can almost anybody in the State who can read and write.

His Republicanism, however, is not of that sound character that warrants him in receiving any such appointment, and Republicans, generally throughout the State deplore the action of Stevenson in selecting, first, a native of Canada, and second, a man who is openly charged in his own county with assisting to deliver it over to the Democrats in 1886.

Mr. Bell as a Prison Warden did not make a success and there was no party reason for giving him this appointment. It was doubtless done to conciliate Mr. Powning of Washoe.

The Republican party in Nevada is in possession of a decided majority and does not need to conciliate party kickers in Washoe or any other county.

Such work simply places a premium on mugwumpery and gives notice to old line, regular up and up, straight Republicanism, that they need expect nothing of the party but a chance to work in the campaign while the periodical kickers sit at the table and divide the pie.

But the Governor, ever since his assuming the responsibilities of office has done the wrong thing at the wrong time and it is too much now to expect that he will change his record in that respect.

He appointed Mr. Chubbuck of Nova Scotia and now he throws a sop to the Canadian contingent.

The Governor did not consider that he had enough native born Americans, whose records as square Republicans were without a blemish, to select from.

THE FIRST ROUND LOST.

The first round between the Gold and Silver men has been fought and the gold bugs have scored a clean knock-down. The election of Tom Reed as Speaker of the House of Representatives can be accepted in no other light. Scores of explanations may be offered, but the bald fact remains the same, that the Wall street influence has triumphed. The gold men were well organized, while the silver men were not.

The silver men did not unite on anybody in particular. The gold men united solidly on Reed and the silver men scattered their forces between Cannon, Burrows, McKinley and Henderson.

These four candidates scored enough on the first ballot to have beaten Reed, combined. On the second ballot several silver men deserted their standard and went over to Wall street.

Two California representatives voted for Reed.

This, coming right on the heels of the St. Louis Convention, is indeed discouraging, but we have all winter before us and the fight has only just begun.

The California Delegation, no matter where they are, can always be depended on to make asses of themselves. At Chicago they dished everything and at St. Louis they paraded the streets with an alleged silver banner held high in the air while they shouted and hurrahed. The silver banner was fringed with gold and had a big gold ball on the top. Misdirected energies and lung exercise seems to be about the only harvest reaped when a California delegation gets East of the Rocky mountains.

The lively character of the city of Fresno and the lively fancy of a San Francisco news editor are both illustrated by the following heading over a press dispatch: "Fresno News—Banqueting, Bigamy and Bolting—Social, Hymeneal and Criminal."
